IN THE HEMISPHERE—

◀ Soviet Cuba. Premier Castro suddenly canceled what was to have been his final meeting with New York attorney James B. Donovan on the release of 1,113 surviving Cuban invasion prisoners. Donovan said he had hoped to close the deal in this meeting, insisted that of food and medicine. Questions hanging: When will the "final" meeting take place? Is Castro (who first demanded $62 million in cash) really considering a food and drug deal? Will the Central Intelligence Agency put up the money if the Cuban dictator demands cash?
